Generic Description:
AMERICA'S HEARTLAND

“America’s Heartland” is a weekly half-hour series featuring everyday Americans and their families, telling fascinating stories across America’s heartland. From learning how to make maple syrup to riding with teenage ranchers, this series explores the various ways of life in the current United States, while showcasing the diversity of how people live and work. Each episode visits several locations and introduces teen viewers to ordinary Americans who sometimes have extraordinary occupations. The series also highlights the history of different regions of the country while providing important facts about each place visited.

Dear Station,

Pursuant to the Children's Television Act of 1990, "America's Heartland" will satisfy the FCC Children's programming requirement and can be classified as either core or non-core programming. "America's Heartland" serves the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content, including the importance of learning about farming and feeding the world. Teenage students are presented with fascinating stories and introduced to exceptional individuals who operate family farms through America's heartland.

"America's Heartland" as delivered is formatted to allow for no more than 14 minutes of total commercial time per broadcast hour (7 minutes per half-hour). "America's Heartland" does not display any Internet web site address or host selling during or adjacent to the program, and is otherwise in compliance with Sections 73.670(a) through (d) of the Commission's Rules.

To facilitate your FCC filings, episode synopses are available on line at our website, www.telcoproductions.com. Also available on-line are testimonials from our educational advisory review board, consisting of educators and other professionals who have reviewed the series (see the following letters for details).

If you have any other questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Dear Mr. Paen:

I have reviewed several episodes of the program "AMERICA'S HEARTLAND" and I am confident that it meets the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content.

The AMERICA'S HEARTLAND series is the powerful and interesting story of America's farming history. The episodes I viewed covered from Jamestown to the Louisiana Purchase to the Homestead Act of 1862. This series is not only informative but entertaining.

City students would enjoy the exposure to life on a farm. AMERICA'S HEARTLAND is certainly educational, entertaining and informative.

Sincerely,

Sister Mary Elizabeth Galt, B.V.M.

Dear Alex,

I have reviewed several episodes of the program "AMERICA'S HEARTLAND" and I am confident that it meets the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content. Each episode in the series is a history lesson on America and its agricultural heritage. It offers teen viewers important information on various topics of life in rural parts of the United States. The programs explain how food is grown and used in different ways. For example, the process of making maple syrup or turning corn into fuel, are just a couple of examples.

In each episode, viewers visit ranches, farms or other locations and learn about different occupations and the rich history of "heartland" jobs and professions.

"AMERICA'S HEARTLAND" is an important addition to any broadcast stations' programming line-up because the series informs and educates young viewers, while broadening their understanding of the agricultural fabric of the United States.

Sincerely,
