

Dear Station,

Pursuant to the Children's Television Act of 1990, "Animal Outtakes" will satisfy the FCC Children's programming requirement and can be classified as either core or non-core programming. "Animal Outtakes" serves the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content, including the importance of learning about a wide variety of animals and the people who take care of them. Teenage students are presented with fascinating stories and introduced to exceptional individuals.

"Animal Outtakes" as delivered is formatted to allow for no more than 14 minutes of total commercial time per broadcast hour (7 minutes per half-hour). "Animal Outtakes" does not display any Internet web site address or host selling during or adjacent to the program, and is otherwise in compliance with Sections 73.670(a) through (d) of the Commission's Rules.

To facilitate your FCC filings, episode synopses are available on line at our website, www.telcoproductions.com. Also available on-line are testimonials from our educational advisory review board, consisting of educators and other professionals who have reviewed the series (see the following letters for details).

If you have any other questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Paen:

I have reviewed several episodes of the program "ANIMAL OUTTAKES" and I am confident that it meets the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content.

ANIMAL OUTTAKES brings the viewer close to the animals. The photography is beautiful – displaying each animal in all its individual beauty. Each episode is informative with background of the uniqueness of each creature. Students would not only be learning details about the animal, but will certainly be entertained.

Sincerely,

Sister Mary Elizabeth Galt, B.V.M.

Dear Alex,

I have reviewed several episodes of the program "ANIMAL OUTTAKES" and I am confident that it meets the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content. The series visits all types of animal sanctuaries and zoos in the United States to explore the world of animals, from camels to lemurs, from rhinos to handicapped pets. Viewers learn about the care and living habitats of these various animals and how they survive in the world.

In each episode, a detailed explanation of an animal species is provided as well as information on the animal's daily nutrition and other living habits.

"ANIMAL OUTTAKES" is educational, informative and entertaining, while providing teen viewers with up-close televised visits of wild and exotic creatures and teaching them all about life in the animal kingdom.

Sincerely,
