MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA

WILD AMERICA is targeted to children ages 13-16. The key educational objective of the program is to familiarize children with the animals of the North American content, their interaction with other animals and their environment. Throughout the series emphasis will be placed upon protecting endangered species and the impact that humans have while interacting in their environment.

Each episode of the series will be specific to a particular animal. Topics will range from basic food gather, mating, natural enemies, relationships to other animals, and the interaction of the specific ecology on the survival of the species.

We expect that children viewing the program will achieve a greater understanding of nature and specific animal species because of the up-close and detailed photography of the series. Through this understanding, it is hoped children will better relate to the natural environment as it exist in North American and learn to protect its natural species.

Dear Station,

Pursuant to the Children's Television Act of 1990, "MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA" will satisfy the FCC Children's programming requirement and can be classified as either core or non-core programming. "MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA" serves the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content, including the importance of understanding America's great outdoors with its look into the amazing lives and fascinating behaviors of virtually every mammal, bird, fish and reptile in the United States. Programs visit various parts of the U.S., educating teenage viewers about wildlife and the American wilderness.

"MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA" as delivered is formatted to allow for no more than 14 minutes of total commercial time per broadcast hour (7 minutes per half-hour). "MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA" does not display any Internet web site address or host selling during or adjacent to the program, and is otherwise in compliance with Sections 73.670(a) through (d) of the Commission's Rules.

To facilitate your FCC filings, episode synopses are available on line at our website, www.telcoproductions.com. Also available on-line are testimonials from our educational advisory review board, consisting of educators and other professionals who have reviewed the series (see the following letters for details).

If you have any other questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Dear Alex,

I have reviewed several episodes of the program "MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA" and I am confident that it meets the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its program content. Each episode in the series is a wonderful look into America's wildlife and wilderness areas. The programs show the lives and behaviors of all types of mammals, birds, fish and reptiles in all parts of the United States. The programs are a virtual natural history video encyclopedia.

"MARTY STOUFFER'S WILD AMERICA" is an important addition to any broadcast stations' programming line-up because the series informs and educates young viewers, while broadening their understanding of the wildlife which populate the United States.

Sincerely,
