Dear Station,

Pursuant to the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the FCC, "ANIMAL RESCUE" satisfies the FCC's Children's programming requirements and may be classified as Core Programming as defined under Section 73.671 of the Commission's Rules. "ANIMAL RESCUE" furthers the educational and informational needs of children 13 to 16 years of age with its programming content, including safety tips and informational about various animals and their habitats. The programs also show real life in-the-field experiences of professional and ordinary people taking care of, treating and helping various animals, as well as exhibiting good social responsibility and promoting strong personal and community values. "ANIMAL RESCUE" as delivered is formatted to allow for no more than 14 minutes of total commercial time per broadcast hour (7 minutes per half-hour). "ANIMAL RESCUE" does not display any Internet web site address or host selling during or adjacent to the program, and is otherwise in compliance with Sections 73.670(a) through (d) of the Commission's Rules.

To facilitate your FCC filings, episode synopses are available on-line at our website, www.telcoproductions.com. Also available online are testimonials from our program advisory board, consisting of educators and veterinary professionals who have reviewed the program (see following pages). If you have any other questions or comments, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Dear Alex,

Upon review of several programs, it is my opinion that "Animal Rescue" is an educational and instructional television series for children 16 years of age and younger. As a teacher, lecturer and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, I feel "Animal Rescue" is specifically designed to educate and inform children about various types of animals and their care, as well as showcasing professional and non-professional people exhibiting selfless dedication assisting animals in need. The programs not only educate youngsters about a wide and diverse range of the world's animals, their habitats and how they live, but they also offer instruction on medical and rehabilitation techniques and address the social aspects and emotional concerns of being a responsible citizen.

As an Adjunct Professor at Western University School of Veterinary Medicine, a lecturer at UCLA Extension and a practicing veterinarian, I would recommend "Animal Rescue" to parents, educators and broadcasters as an excellent example of informational programming serving young viewers.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

We at IFAW (International Fund for Animal Welfare – www.ifaw.org) value the educational and informative content of the television program Animal Rescue. We feel that it provides youths with a good understanding of the key threats faced by animals both wild and domestic. We also feel that it provides responsible guidance to youths in encouraging them to become involved in key animal welfare and conservation initiatives. IFAW supports the good work of the television program Animal Rescue and recommends it to parents, educators and others who control the television viewing of youths in America.
