

Color Commentary is a daily one-hour talk and opinion show highlighting perspectives from all our nation's colors. From race to religion to gender to economic status—all of these make up the Colors of America. Topics will feature daily and topical analysis of breaking news events and are not selected based on liberal or conservative viewpoints—just common folk and common-sense talk.

Color Commentary will face off on issues of racial and social injustice without signing on to culture's definition of "woke." Discussion will solicit everyone's perspectives. Color Commentary will be inclusive – but not "politically correct." The show is designed to challenge our viewers thinking, beliefs and possibly make them feel uncomfortable while taking them through a rollercoaster of emotions.

Color Commentary is executive produced by DuJuan McCoy, President and CEO of Circle City Broadcasting Entertainment.
