

How Sweet The Sound

One-hour Black History Month Special is a soul-stirring celebration of faith, music, and community, bringing together the nation's top HBCU choirs, Church Choirs, soloists, and spoken word artists in an electrifying competition. Hosted by gospel and grammy legends, this inspiring event blends unforgettable performances, celebrity judges, and powerful stories—all on one stage. Special features an all-star lineup of gospel legends who serve as both judges and performers, bringing unmatched talent and inspiration to the stage. Donald Lawrence, Jonathan McReynolds, Tasha Cobbs Leonard, Jekalyn Carr, J.J. Hairston, and Ricky Dillard offer expert guidance while delivering powerful, soul-stirring performances.
